COOPERSTOWN TO BECOME TIGERTOWN THIS JULY

On December 10, 2017, Tigers legends Jack Morris and Alan Trammell received every baseball players' dream call – congratulating them for being elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

Morris and Trammell were the first two members of what would eventually become the Hall of Fame's six-person Class of 2018, additionally comprised of Chipper Jones, Vladimir Guerrero, Jim Thome and Trevor Hoffman. The two Tigers greats bring the total of former Motor City players in Cooperstown to 26, including 12 who spent the majority of their careers wearing the Olde English 'D'. Most recently, former Tiger catcher Ivan Rodriguez was enshrined in the Class of 2017.

Morris pitched 18 seasons for the Tigers, Twins, Blue Jays and Indians, winning 254 career games and earning five All-Star Game selections. He made 14 Opening Day starts and pitched for four World Series-winning teams, capturing the 1991 World Series MVP following 10 shutout innings in Game 7 for the Twins.

Morris topped the 200-inning mark in 11 seasons and notched 175 complete games, the most of any pitcher whose career started after 1976.

While with the Tigers, Morris posted a record of 198-150 over 430 games, with a 3.73 ERA (3042.2IP/1262ER), 1,980 strikeouts, 154 complete games and 23 shutouts. He ranks second on the Tigers all-time leaderboard in games started (408), third in strikeouts, fourth in innings pitched, fifth in wins, sixth in WAR for pitchers (37.9) and eighth in complete games and shutouts.

"I've got to believe, in a crazy sort of way, that this is the sweetest way to go in," Morris said. "To go in with a guy who meant so much to me and, in my opinion, was overlooked."

Trammell spent his entire 20-year big league playing career with the Tigers, earning six All-Star Game selections, four Gold Glove Awards at shortstop and three Silver Slugger Awards. Trammell was named the 1984 World Series Most Valuable Player after leading Detroit to the championship with a .450 batting average over five games. He totaled 2,365 hits, 412 doubles and a .285 career batting average, and hit .300-or-better in seven seasons. Trammell continues to work for the Tigers, currently as Special Assistant to the General Manager.

The greatest shortstop in Detroit Tigers history, Trammell is among the leaders in many of the franchises' offensive and defensive rankings. He places first in defensive WAR (22.0), fifth in plate appearances (9,376), at-bats (8,288) and stolen bases (236), sixth in runs scored (1,231) and doubles and seventh in hits and total bases (3,442).

"Overwhelmed," Trammell said of learning about his election. "My mind is a whirlwind. I thought that Jack was well-deserving and in my opinion should've been in a few years ago. But nevertheless, it's an honor to go in with Jack and whoever is inducted from the writers' ballot. It's going to be a great class. I'm honored to be a part of it."

The duo was selected by the Modern Baseball Era Committee from a ballot of ten, whose greatest contributions to the game were recognized from 1970-1987.The Modern Baseball Era Committee, formerly known as the Veterans Committee, meets twice every five years, and includes members of the National Baseball Hall of Fame, executives, and veteran media members. Candidates that are discussed for election must be named on at least 75% of the ballots casted by voters.

To honor the contributions of Morris and Trammell to baseball in Detroit, the Tigers announced that the organization will retire #47 and #3 in August of 2018. The two legends will join Charlie Gehringer (2), Hank Greenberg (5), Al Kaline (6), Sparky Anderson (11), Hal Newhouser (16) and Willie Horton (23), in addition to Jackie Robinson (42), as players with their numbers retired at Comerica Park.

THANKS A MILLION, TIGERS FANS

The Tigers have drawn over one million fans at home in each of the past 53 seasons, the lone American League team to do so. Only the Cardinals (55 years) and the Dodgers (73 years) have longer streaks. The Dodgers drew over one million fans in the last 13 seasons in Brooklyn, and all 60 years in Los Angeles. In addition, the Tigers topped the one hundred million mark in franchise history in 1994.

HOW THEY BECAME KNOWN AS "TIGERS"

Research reveals the nickname "Tigers" was first applied to the Detroit club in 1895. Baseball historians had long credited Philip J. Reid, city editor of the Detroit Evening News, with first using the name in print in 1896. However, George Stallings, manager of the Detroit team which was then a member of the Western League, took credit for the nickname because he had his players wear black-and-brown striped stockings, which, he said, reminded the fans of "tiger stripes."

It appears, though, that it was actually an unidentified headline writer at the Detroit Free Press who originated the Tigers nickname in 1895, a year before Stallings became manager and before the team was wearing striped stockings. Previously, the team had simply been called "Detroit", "the Detroits", sometimes the "Wolverines" and at times the "Creams."

On April 16, 1895, the Free Press printed a headline over a baseball story which read, "Strouthers' Tigers Showed Up Very Nicely." On the same page, a string of baseball notes was headed "Notes of the Detroit Tigers of 1895." Curiously, not once in either story was the word "Tigers" used.

From then on, the Free Press regularly called the club the "Tigers" and in May, 1895, The Sporting Life began using "Tigers" in its dispatches from Detroit. However, up to July 1, 1895, careful research disclosed that neither the Detroit Evening News nor its Sunday paper, the News-Tribune, had ever used "Tigers."

DETROIT TIGERS OLDE ENGLISH 'D'

The Detroit Tigers Olde English 'D' is one of the most revered emblems in Major League Baseball. It was first stitched on the away uniform in 1904, only three years after the team had joined the newly formed American League. The following year, the Olde English 'D' was stitched on the home uniform as well and also appeared on the baseball cap. Through the years the 'D' has undergone various stylizations, but the pride this symbol brings to the team and its fans has been constant.

IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

The first Major League Detroit franchise, at the time known as the Wolverines, was a member of the National League from 1881 through 1888.

The 1887 Wolverines, led by Hall-of-Famer Dan Brouthers, won the franchise's only National League pennant by three and one-half games over the Philadelphia Phillies. They subsequently engaged the St. Louis Browns, champions of the American Association, in the longest World Series ever. Detroit won 10 of the 15 series games, which were played in 10 different cities over a 16-day period.

Detroit dropped out of the Major Leagues after the 1888 season, returning as a charter member of the American League in 1901.

- Mike Ilitch was a once-in-a-generation entrepreneur and champion for Detroit.
- He and his wife, Marian, invested their family savings in 1959 to open the first Little Caesars store in Garden City, Michigan, a suburb of Detroit. That single mom-and-pop pizza shop grew into the largest carryout pizza chain in the world, with restaurants in 23 countries and territories across the globe. The success of the business was built upon the exceptional quality and value of the Little Caesars menu and Mike's marketing savvy and imaginative ideas in production.
- The growth of Little Caesars helped Mike and Marian create other leading brands in the food, sports and entertainment industries.
- The couple purchased the Detroit Red Wings in 1982. While the team was known as the Dead Wings at the time, Mike and Marian believed they were a sleeping giant and immediately took charge to turn the team around. By 1997, the Red Wings won their first Stanley Cup in 42 years, and they went on to win three more. Four Stanley Cup parades held along Woodward Avenue in Detroit attracted hundreds of thousands of people, many from the suburbs who had not been to downtown Detroit in decades. Detroit became known as Hockeytown and brought a sense of pride to the area's hockey fans and the community as a whole.
- Throughout Mike's life, he remained true to his hometown and was a zealous supporter of Detroit, working tirelessly to help it prosper and to bring pride to the city.
- In 1988, Mike and Marian purchased the neglected Fox Theatre and carefully restored it to its original 1928 splendor.
- One year later, they moved their Little Caesars world headquarters from the suburbs into the newly renovated Fox Office Center adjacent to the restored theatre. This was during a time when many businesses were fleeing the city. Restoration of the theatre and renovation of the office building brought new life to the area. Currently, the headquarters campus is being expanded with an addition of a new nine-story, 234,000 square foot building next door to the Fox Theatre.
- Mike displayed further commitment to the city he loved when he purchased the Detroit Tigers in 1992 and built a new state-of-the-art ballpark for the team. Remembering his early years as a Minor League baseball player with the Tigers, he did everything in his power to make the fan experience at Comerica Park a memorable one.
- The new ballpark enabled Detroit to successfully host the MLB All-Star Game in 2005 and also helped promote Detroit as a tourist destination when the Detroit Tigers hosted the World Series in 2006. Mike also encouraged the Ford family to bring the Detroit Lions back to Detroit from the suburbs and build a new stadium right next door to the ballpark by relinquishing a portion of land to make way for the new stadium. The new football venue allowed Detroit to host the Super Bowl in 2006.
- Today – true to the vision of Mike and Marian for a bustling downtown area – the Ilitch organization is transforming dozens of blocks of largely underutilized land in Detroit into a special area for everyone in the community to enjoy. The District Detroit includes office, retail and residential spaces, as well as the new Little Caesars Arena, home of the Detroit Red Wings and Detroit Pistons, and world-class entertainment, music and community events.
- Mike and Marian believed passionately in giving back to the community. As the parents of children who played hockey, the couple wanted to provide other children the opportunity to play the sport as well. So they established the Little Caesars Amateur Hockey Program in 1968, and it has provided opportunities for tens of thousands of youngsters to play the great game of hockey over the years. Hundreds have gone on to play at colleges, universities and in the National Hockey League.
- The couple established the Little Caesars Love Kitchen in 1985. With two trucks on the road to serve those in need, these restaurants on wheels have served more than three million people.

- Inspired by the story of a veteran returning to civilian life, Mike founded the Little Caesars Veterans Program in 2006. He had read a newspaper story about an Army Sergeant who had tragically lost both his legs during combat in Iraq. As a veteran himself, Mike was impressed with the can-do attitude of this veteran. The Little Caesars Veterans Program that followed provides honorably discharged veterans with financial incentives and other support to help them open a Little Caesars franchise.
- Ilitch Charities and its affiliates, the Detroit Red Wings Foundation and the Detroit Tigers Foundation, have given $35 million in cash and in-kind contributions since 2005 to deserving organizations across the community.
- Mike and Marian have personally gifted nearly $50 million to Detroit's Wayne State University – $8 million to the Department of Surgery and $40 million dedicated to establish the new Mike Ilitch School of Business, which will train and educate the next generation of the city's great entrepreneurs.
- Mike received numerous business, cultural, and philanthropic awards during his lifetime, including:
  - The International Franchise Association Hall of Fame (2016)
  - SportsBusiness Journal's "The Champions: Pioneers and Innovators in Sports Business" (2014)
  - Michigan Sports Hall of Fame (2004)
  - US Hockey Hall of Fame (2004)
  - National Hockey League Hall of Fame (2003)
  - Ellis Island Medal of Honor (1997)
- Locally in Detroit, Mike was honored for his efforts in the community with the Joe Louis Brown Bomber Jacket Award, the Distinguished Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Service Award, the Shining Light Regional Cooperation Award and the Edward H. McNamara Goodfellow of the Year Award. He was also given the key to the city.
- Mike Ilitch was a remarkable American success story. In 2012, he wrote, "Develop a love for all people; be humble; work hard. I guarantee you will be successful in life." He did just that and had a life well lived.

ALL-STAR GAME HISTORY

JULY 8, 1941
AMERICAN LEAGUE 7, NATIONAL LEAGUE 5

Detroit hosted the ninth All-Star Game at Briggs Stadium on July 8, 1941. The game was attended by nearly 55,000 fans and they were rewarded as the American League squad rallied from a 5-2 deficit with one run in the eighth inning and four runs in the ninth to defeat the National League. The comeback was capped by a three-run home run off the facing of the right field roof by Hall-of-Famer Ted Williams. Williams would later characterize the home run as one of the most exciting moments of his career. Arky Vaughan led the National League offense in the loss, becoming the first player in All-Star history to hit two home runs in a game while adding a single and four RBI.

Three Tigers players were selected to play in the contest, including first baseman Rudy York, catcher Birdie Tebbetts and righthanded pitcher Al Benton. York was the only Tigers player to appear in the game, finishing 1x3. The American League squad was managed by Tigers skipper Del Baker while Tigers coach Merv Shea served as one of the coaches.

The 1941 All-Star Game also marked the first time brothers had appeared together in a Midsummer Classic. Joe and Dom DiMaggio both appeared in the game for the American League with Joe finishing 1x4 with three runs scored and a RBI and Dom finishing 1x1 with a RBI.

NATIONAL LEAGUE 8, AMERICAN LEAGUE 3

Briggs Stadium hosted the 18th All-Star Game on July 10, 1951 as the Midsummer Classic was again played in Detroit. Over 52,000 fans were in attendance and witnessed a home run barrage as the National League squad thumped an All-Star record four roundtrippers to defeat the American League 8-3 and claim their second consecutive victory for the first time in All-Star history. The American League chipped in two home runs to raise the game total to six, establishing a new All-Star record.

Ralph Kiner drilled a two-run homer for the National League in the eighth inning, which made him the only player in history to homer in three consecutive All-Star games. Stan Musial also established a new All-Star record by being caught stealing twice.

The Tigers were represented by third baseman George Kell, outfielder Vic Wertz and righthanded pitcher Fred Hutchinson. Kell started the game at third base and drilled a solo home run while Wertz started the game in right field and also connected for a solo roundtripper. Hutchinson worked three innings in the loss, allowing three runs on three hits while issuing two walks.

AMERICAN LEAGUE 6, NATIONAL LEAGUE 4

The All-Star Game returned to Detroit on July 13, 1971 as the best players in baseball flocked to Tiger Stadium for the 42nd Midsummer Classic. The American League squad hit three home runs to take the 6-4 victory and snap an eight-game losing streak. Reggie Jackson provided the memorable moment when he crushed a Dock Ellis delivery off the light tower in right field for a two-run homer.

The National League hit three home runs as the two teams matched an All-Star record with a combined six home runs, all by Hall-of-Fame players (Hank Aaron, Johnny Bench, Roberto Clemente, Jackson, Harmon Killibrew, Frank Robinson).

Robinson was named as the game's Most Valuable Player after finishing the game 1x2 with a home run and two RBI. Robinson's home run made him the first player in All-Star history to hit a home run for both the American and National League.

The Tigers were represented by first baseman Norm Cash, catcher Bill Freehan, outfielder Al Kaline and lefthanded pitcher Mickey Lolich. Cash started at first base and finished 0x2, while Freehan started behind the plate and went hitless in three trips to the plate. Kaline entered the game, playing right field, in the sixth inning and finished the game 1x2 with a run scored. Lolich worked the final two innings, allowing one run on one hit, while striking out one.

AMERICAN LEAGUE 7, NATIONAL LEAGUE 5

The All-Star Game made its return to Detroit and first visit to Comerica Park on July 12, 2005 for the 76th Midsummer Classic. The American League jumped out to an early 7-0 lead and held on for the 7-5 victory. The victory was the eighth consecutive for the American League and raised their record to 3-1 in All-Star Games played in Detroit.

Miguel Tejada led the American League offensive attack with a two-run homer and played solid defense at shortstop to earn the game's most valuable player award. David Ortiz was the only player in the game to collect multiple hits, finishing 2x3 with a pair of singles and a RBI.

Andruw Jones led the National League offense with two runs scored, a home run and two RBI. Derrek Lee, Moises Alou and Luis Gonzalez each chipped in with doubles to round out the offensive attack for the National League.

Mark Buehrle started for the American League and worked two scoreless innings to earn the victory. John Smoltz allowed a solo home run to Tejada to take the loss. Mariano Rivera struck out Morgan Ensberg to end the game and earn the save.

The Tigers were represented by catcher Ivan Rodriguez, who was named to his 12th All-Star team. Rodriguez entered the game behind the plate in the fifth inning and finished 0x1 with a walk in his two trips to the plate.

Martinez and Nicholas Castellanos connected for back-to-back home runs in Game Two on October 3, 2014. - Batted .400-or-better three times (.420, 1911; .410, 1912; .401, 1922), tied for most in Major League history...one of just two players (Rogers Hornsby) who played their entire career after 1900 to accomplish the feat.
- Was the Chalmers Award winner (American League Most Valuable Player) in 1911 after batting a career-high .420.
- Won the league batting title in 12 out of 14 seasons from 1907-20.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Detroit's Al Kaline won the award in 1973 and other past winners include Anthony Rizzo, Curtis Granderson, Andrew McCutchen, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith and Cal Ripken, Jr.

The Detroit Tigers return to Spring Training in 2018 for their 82nd season in Lakeland, and their 53rd at Publix Field at Joker Marchant Stadium.

The Tigers first trained in Lakeland in 1934 at Henley Field before moving a mile north to Joker Marchant Stadium in 1966. In July 2014, the Tigers agreed to extend their relationship with Lakeland for 20 additional years, ensuring their winter home remains in Lakeland for an unprecedented 100 years, through 2036.

Marchant Stadium was named in honor of the late Joker Marchant, Lakeland's former parks and recreation director. The all-concrete grandstand of the stadium was built by the City of Lakeland at a cost of $500,000, and originally seated 4,900 spectators. Expansion projects beginning in the early 1970s brought the capacity to 7,100, and was recently upped again to 9,000. Previous renovations have included the addition of lights that allowed the first night game to be played in Lakeland in 1972, and a food/picnic court that was added in 1994 to enhance the fan experience.

Thanks to the support of the City of Lakeland, Polk County, the State of Florida and Publix, Joker Marchant Stadium underwent significant renovations prior to the 2017 season, improving training facilities for players, meeting space for the coaching staff and the gameday experience for fans.

The Tigers have trained exclusively in Lakeland since 1934, except for a three-year wartime sabbatical to Evansville, IN, from 1943-45. The association between the Detroit Tigers and City of Lakeland remains the longest-lasting relationship between a Major League team and a current Spring Training host city.

The Tigers all-time record at Publix Field at Joker Marchant Stadium is 422-339-24 and 4,120,483 fans have paid to see Tigers Grapefruit League games since the park opened.

PUBLIX FIELD
JOKER MARCHANT STADIUM

PUBLIX FIELD AT JOKER MARCHANT STADIUM FEATURES

MORE SHADE
There are six sections that were recently covered (211-216), increasing the number of covered seats (rows N and up) from 1,246 to 2,098 (increase of 41%), while more seats are shaded with the extended roof.

CONCESSION STANDS AND OFFERINGS
The concession stands were recently rebuilt and expanded with all new equipment, offering more items, while rotating in new items to keep the menu fresh and exciting. A new point of sale system has been installed, aimed at shortening wait times, and digital menu boards allow for seamless posting of new food offerings and specials.

RESTROOMS
The number of women's restroom toilets recently increased 50%, from 48 to 72. Men's toilets/urinals also increased from 38 to 48. Two family restrooms were also added.

WHEELCHAIR ACCESSIBLE SEATING
Four wheelchair accessible seating sections were recently added atop sections 212, 214, 215 and 216, and while the wheelchair accessible section in 205 was removed, the number of ADA seats (wheelchairs and companion seats) increased from 30 to 42. Two additional elevators have been added, bringing the total to three. Elevators are now located near the home plate, first base and third base entrances.

PEPSI PAVILION
Featuring two tiers with covering to protect against the sun and rain, the Pepsi Pavilion is perfect for groups ranging from 30-200 people. A mix of fixed stadium seats, drink rails and picnic tables allow for groups to watch the action, or socialize with friends and family while enjoying an all-you-can-eat picnic.

MARGARITAVILLE
Presented by Margaritaville Rum & Tequila, the Florida themed Margaritaville Deck is located down the rightfield line, and mixes a Florida theme with views of the bullpens and clubhouse. Featuring two tiers of seating, Margaritaville is available during Spring Training to groups of 44-120, and will double as a group/public space during the Flying Tigers season.

LED HD VIDEO DISPLAYS AND SCOREBOARD
The stadium features a state-of-the-art HD videoboard and scoreboard, measuring 46 feet wide by 26 feet tall (1,196 square feet). It is one of the largest boards in all of Spring Training, and sits atop the berm in left field, along with a ribbon board in right field. These boards will improve the gameday experience, from more player information and stats to new and exciting in-game promotions.

THE RUNWAY
Built on top of the former Lodwick Field Airstrip, The Runway connects the first base concourse and the berm, providing fans a 360-degree view of the field. Fans are able to watch the game from drink rails or beach chair seating, providing a special look into the bullpens. Fans in this area are also able to check out the history of TigerTown, and enjoy unique food and drink offerings.

CLUBHOUSE AND WEIGHT ROOM
New clubhouses were recently constructed for the Detroit Tigers and Flying Tigers, in addition to a 7,068 square-foot weight room and agility area, which is among the largest in all of professional baseball.

MINOR LEAGUE AND PRACTICE FIELDS
The TigerTown observation tower allows player development staff to get a 360-degree view of the four practice fields. One field has been replaced with artificial turf, making it suitable for play shortly after rain storms and allowing year-round activity, while the other fields are undergoing constant improvement. Practice mounds and a 9,000 square-foot air-conditioned indoor batting cage were also recently built.

REHABILITATION FACILITIES
The athletic training facility is outfitted with some of today's most advanced treatment and rehabilitative modalities, allowing Lakeland to become a year-round rehabilitation and training facility for all Major and Minor League players. From class IV laser technology to neuromuscular stimulation, the Tigers sports medicine staff is well equipped to promote a more efficient environment for the healing process to take place.

FETZER HALL AND TIGERTOWN FACILITIES

Adjacent to the 12-acre tract on which the stadium is situated is TigerTown, the Tigers Minor League training site since 1953. A three-story dormitory provides housing for 190 players and coaches. It was dedicated in 1971 and named in honor of the late John Fetzer, former owner and president of the Detroit Tigers. The move to the TigerTown facility in 1953 was aided by the use of barracks that were originally part of the Lodwick School of Aeronautics, a British training school for aviation cadets during World War II. The school closed in August, 1945, and was converted to a city airport, which was later named Lodwick Field. The barracks from the former training school allowed the team to provide room and board for players throughout Spring Training.

The original setup at Lodwick Field boasted four diamonds, a fieldhouse, recreation room and a dining hall, which was said to have served nearly 16,000 meals during Spring Training in 1953. The field provided the club with an all-encompassing facility that could serve the needs of the Minor League system during Spring Training. When the facility opened in 1953, the club owned three Minor League affiliates, and had working agreements with four other clubs. The 1953 Detroit Tigers Press Book stated that 200 rookies would be given the opportunity to display their wares in the first Minor League Spring Training, held at what is now the TigerTown complex.

Comerica Park is home to the Detroit Tigers, a charter member of the American League and one of the most storied franchises in Major League Baseball. The opening of the park on April 11, 2000 ushered in a new era of baseball in Detroit, featuring a multi-faceted fan experience in one of the premier venues in professional sports. Comerica Park was designed with fans in mind, and provides a one-of-a-kind experience for visitors of all ages.

THE DISTRICT DETROIT

The District Detroit is one of the largest sports and entertainment developments in the country. Located in the heart of Detroit, this 50-block, mixed-use development led by the Ilitch organization unites eight world-class theaters, five neighborhoods and three professional sports venues in one vibrant, walkable destination for people who want to live, work and play in an exciting urban environment. Home to the Detroit Tigers, Detroit Red Wings, Detroit Pistons and Detroit Lions, The District Detroit represents the greatest density of professional sports teams in one downtown core in the country. Learn more at DistrictDetroit.com.

THE CONCOURSES

Comerica Park's concourses are among the most generous of any sporting venue. The minimum width of the main concourse is 40 feet, though it becomes wider in many areas. The upper concourse is approximately 34 feet wide. Concourses at old Tiger Stadium were between 17 and 27 feet on the lower level, 11 feet behind the last row of the lower deck and 11 feet in the upper level.

THE WALK OF FAME

Fans are treated to a tour through the rich history of Detroit Tigers baseball as they walk through the main concourse at Comerica Park. The concourse is divided into a chronology of Tigers history, complete with artifacts and exhibits. Decade monuments covering two decades each are placed along the concourse, towering from floor to ceiling and featuring rich memories from each era.

CONCESSIONS FACILITIES AND FOOD COURT

Typical ballparks have a point of sale (register) for every 200 fans; Comerica Park abbreviates the wait with one point of sale for every 125 fans. Prior to the 2016 season, permanent brick-faced concession stands were installed on the concourse to improve sightlines for fans. Among the many tantalizing food options are the FOX Sports Detroit Brushfire Grill behind third base and the Comerica Bank Big Cat Court behind first base, each featuring a wide range of snacks, sandwiches, frozen treats and other great munchies.

THE SCOREBOARD

One of the most stunning features at Comerica Park is the high definition LED video board in left field. The Daktronics board measures approximately 48 feet high and 127 feet wide, and utilizes the latest in LED technology to offer excellent clarity and contrast of video images. In addition to the main board, a five-foot high and 100-foot wide LED display is positioned beneath the main board to provide pitcher statistics and other information. The state-of-the-art technology continues on top of the board with a script Tigers logo that utilizes LED technology, allowing the lettering to change color and be animated for special events throughout the season.

FAMILY ENTERTAINMENT

In the middle of the Comerica Bank Big Cat Court, the Comerica Park Carousel is available for the young and young-at-heart, with patrons riding atop tigers instead of horses. Also, the Fly Ball Ferris Wheel, a baseball-themed ferris wheel, is located in the FOX Sports Detroit Brushfire Grill. The stunning Chevrolet Fountain above center field synchronizes music and light to spraying fountains of water.

SEATING LEVELS AND CAPACITIES

There are approximately 23,000 seats in the lower bowl of Comerica Park, and 2,000 in the two suite levels. There are roughly 12,000 in the main upper deck. From just past first base to the right-field foul line, there is a section with 4,000 seats that does not have a suite level. The upper deck in this level is approximately 15 feet lower, and closer to the field than the main upper deck.

PREMIUM SEATING AREAS

Comerica Park features four premium seating areas. Located at the upper rows of the lower bowl, the Tiger Den resembles the fashionable boxes at old-time sporting venues with movable chairs. A private lounge is available for patrons. Another premium seating area is located in the lowest rows of the lower bowl, called On-Deck Circle seats. Additionally, there are two levels of suites, which includes several party suites that are available for individual game rental.

COMERICA PARK STATUES

Comerica Park features larger-than-life sculptures of six Tigers legends, which overlook the field from the left field concourse. The sculptures feature Ty Cobb, Charlie Gehringer, Hank Greenberg, Willie Horton, Al Kaline and Hal Newhouser. They were designed by sculptor Omri Amrany, and were cast in stainless steel. Gate A features a sculpture of Hall of Fame broadcaster Ernie Harwell, greeting fans as they enter Comerica Park.

MOTORCITY CASINO HOTEL TIGER CLUB

The MotorCity Casino Hotel Tiger Club features approximately 20,000 square feet of entertainment space. There is seating for 300 patrons with a view of right field, a bar for 200, the Cigar Bar and a banquet facility.

CHAMPIONS CLUB

The Champions Club combines the perks of luxury seating with an open and relaxed lounge atmosphere. The Champions Club opened in 2006 and is located on the suite level down the left field line.

THE PEPSI PORCH

Prior to the 2014 season, the Pepsi Porch underwent an extensive renovation, including the addition of the New Amsterdam 416 bar, featuring a unique social setting with a relaxed outdoor environment. Fans in this area can sit comfortably in high-end outdoor furniture, with a nearby fire feature, big flat screen TVs, and enjoy a ballgame.

THE CHEVROLET PAVILION

The Chevrolet Pavilion features 1,800 square feet of entertainment space under the scoreboard in left field, near Gate C. It is available to rent for private parties, and offers a variety of food, beverage and bar options. The Chevrolet Pavilion provides a relaxing atmosphere with excellent views of the field, and multiple TVs to catch the action.

MILLER LITE PITCHER'S PUB

The Miller Lite Pitcher's Pub is open to the public and located on the Pepsi Porch in right field. Boasting a fun and relaxed atmosphere, flat screen TVs, and decor celebrating Detroit Tigers pitchers past and present, this is a great destination for a bite to eat and a beverage.

BLUE MOON BREWHOUSE

Located behind section 330, the Blue Moon Brew House delivers features such as lounge seating, private restrooms, and excellent food and beverage offerings. This upper deck lounge is air conditioned, heated and open to the public.

MOTORCITY CASINO HOTEL OFF-RAMP BAR

The MotorCity Casino Hotel Off-Ramp Bar features an over 50-foot bar with various beer selections on tap and nine large screens, creating the ultimate viewing experience of the scoreboard feed during the game and inning breaks. Located next to the Big Cat Court, the bar is also accessible from all levels via ramp.

GATED ENTRANCES

There are four gated entrances to Comerica Park, each featuring attractions on a grand scale. Among the features are immense 80-foot high baseball bats framing the gates, tiger sculptures and Pewabic tile accents.

FANTASTIC FIREWORKS

Not only is Comerica Park known for explosive action on the field, but also in the skies above. Beginning shortly after the park opened in 2000, fantastic fireworks displays have been held on select Fridays throughout the season, adding unrivaled value and fun to an already exciting atmosphere.

SPECIAL NEEDS ACCESS

Comerica Park complies with all guidelines of the ADA. In completing the facility, the Tigers worked extensively with organizations including The Paralyzed Veterans of America's Michigan Chapter and the Michigan Commission for the Blind to ensure accessibility for all fans and a great baseball experience for guests who enter Comerica Park.

THE TEAM

The design team of HOK Sport and the Detroit-based Smith, Hinchman and Grylls served as architects for Comerica Park, while Huber, Hunt & Nichols, Inc., Turner Construction Company and White Construction Company joined forces to form Hunt-Turner-White as construction management team. Private financing accounts for more than 60 percent of Comerica Park, with partners including the Tigers and a bank syndicate led by Sumitomo Bank, Limited, Societe General, First Chicago NBD, Provident Bank of Maryland, First of America Bank, Standard Federal Bank and Michigan National Bank. Public financing participants include the Michigan Strategic Fund (infrastructure), City of Detroit Downtown Development Authority and Wayne County.

MOMENTS IN COMERICA PARK HISTORY

Comerica Park is entering its 19th season as the home of the Detroit Tigers. Over nearly two decades, Comerica Park has seen many exciting moments that are part of the fabric of Detroit baseball history.

MIDSUMMER CLASSIC RETURNS TO MOTOWN
The first marquee Major League Baseball event to take place at Comerica Park was the 2005 Major League Baseball All-Star Game. It marked the fourth All-Star game in Detroit, and the first since 1971. The American League defeated the National League, 7-5, behind home runs from Mark Teixeira and Miguel Tejada. In the home run derby, Bobby Abreu set a Major League record, belting 24 home runs in the first round, and 41 home runs over the course of the contest.

PLAYOFF BASEBALL COMES TO COMERICA PARK
After clinching the American League Wild Card during the regular season and opening the 2006 playoffs at Yankee Stadium, the first postseason game in the history of Comerica Park was played on October 6, 2006. The Tigers defeated the Yankees, 6-0, and went on to win five of the six games held at Comerica Park during the 2006 playoffs.

MAGGLIO ORDOÑEZ BELTS HISTORIC HOME RUN TO SEND TIGERS TO THE FALL CLASSIC
Tigers right fielder Magglio Ordoñez stepped to the plate in the bottom of the ninth inning with the score tied at three in Game Four of the 2006 American League Championship Series. He belted a Huston Street offering into the Detroit sky for a game-ending three-run home run, propelling the Tigers to the club's first World Series berth since 1984.

WORLD SERIES BASEBALL AT COMERICA PARK
The Tigers have appeared in the World Series twice since Comerica Park opened in 2000. The Tigers split two games with the St. Louis Cardinals in the 2006 World Series, and lost both games to the San Francisco Giants in the 2012 World Series at Comerica Park.

VERLANDER FIRES SIXTH NO-HITTER IN FRANCHISE HISTORY
Justin Verlander fired the sixth no-hitter in franchise history on June 12, 2007, in a 4-0 victory over the Milwaukee Brewers. It marked the first no-hitter at Comerica Park, and the first no-hitter by a Tigers pitcher in Detroit since Virgil Trucks on May 15, 1952, at Briggs Stadium.
